Committed to being a Family Business...

It's over 90 years since the young Swiss confectioner, Frederick Belmont, opened his first Bettys café in Harrogate in 1919.

I am very proud to be a member of the third generation of family who have had the honour to work in this special business, striving always to be true to Frederick's original values of quality, craftsmanship, attention to detail and self sufficiency.

If he were to wander into Bettys today, many things would be familiar to him – the handmade bread, cakes and chocolates from our own Craft Bakery; the finest teas and coffees served in sparkling silver pots; comfortable and cosy surroundings and delicious Swiss-Yorkshire food, delivered with a smile. In fact, it might look as if nothing much has changed at all. But without the willingness of Frederick's successors to embrace new ideas and improvements, always with a desire to stay true to the past, Bettys would not be the business it is today.

The fourth generation of family owners are taking their responsibilities very seriously – especially the family's commitment to remaining an independent business – and already there are several members of the fifth generation, cutting their teeth on Fat Rascals!

Our greatest pleasure is knowing that we are serving the second, third, fourth and fifth generations of Frederick Belmont's customers.

From the Swiss Alps to the Yorkshire Dales

Our unique Swiss-Yorkshire heritage stretches back to the arrival of our Swiss founder on these shores early in the last century and continues to inspire our dishes to this day.

Swiss cuisine includes flavours of neighbouring alpine France, Italy and Germany, and from handmade chocolates to traditional specialities, our continental roots are as important as ever.

Yorkshire and Swiss cuisines tend to be hearty, from crispy battered fish and chips to a rösti made with Gruyère cheese – perhaps due to the similarly green and hilly landscapes and a shared love of putting quality ingredients first.

Taking Afternoon Tea

The seventh Duchess of Bedford began a tradition that has delighted generations since the 1840s, when she started taking tea and sandwiches to bridge the gap between lunch and dinner. By Edwardian times, Afternoon Tea meant visiting the smartest establishments with the most elegant china and silverware.

Today, Afternoon Tea at Bettys is a chance to indulge in freshly made sandwiches and our dainty handmade cakes, all served on a beautiful cake stand with a pot of our classic Tea Room Blend tea.

For splendid surroundings and live accompaniment from the café pianist, book a table for Lady Betty Afternoon Tea in the Belmont Room, Bettys York or the Imperial Room, Bettys Harrogate.

For details of how to make a reservation, please ask your waiter or waitress or visit our website for more details.
